- A. STAR WEDDING
- B. HOROSCOPE
- C. TRAFFIC NEWS
- D. SPORTS
- E. WEATHER FORECAST
- F. AIR INCIDENT
- G. SUCCESSFUL CAREER

1. The system of traffic information began to work in many major cities of America not long ago. Drivers get 7-day traffic forecasts with information on forthcoming jams and other traffic troubles. The system takes account of traffic accidents, planned road works; provides real time information: traffic density, average movement speed. TV viewers of each city can see their road net and choose where to drive round.
2. Hollywood actress Sandra Bullock married American TV star Jesse James in July, 2005 in California. Many hundreds of guests had been invited to a rented ranch near Santa Barbara. The guests didn't know that they were attending a wedding. They thought until the last minute that they would be celebrating Bullock's 41st birthday.

3. This is your week, Aries. Your ruler Mars has prepared a special gift for you this week. The ball is already rolling, so there isn't a whole lot you can do to control its direction, but your ruling planet is helping you to maintain a balance when it comes to remaining confident in the right, natural outcome and making sure your allies can help you deal with whatever difficult situations might arise.

4. American Airlines flight 605 carrying 176 passengers to Puerto Rico from Fort Lauderdale, Florida was diverted after a passenger found a chilling note scribbled on a napkin that made reference to a bomb. Forty minutes into the flight, the crew made the decision to return back to the airport. A subsequent inspection of the plane failed to uncover anything unusual.

5. It's calculated that Joanne Rowling, the author of very famous books about Harry Potter, is earning $ 36,000,000 daily, and her total profit is already more than $ 1,000,000,000.

6. The world's famous cycling race comes to its exciting conclusion when the riders cap off three weeks of road racing and 21 stages with a sprint down the Champs Elysées in Paris. The Tour de France will be broadcast live daily at Sportland at 5 p.m. until the last stage on Sunday, June 24, which will show at 7 p.m.

A. The Golden Apple hotel restaurant has a new chef, Ervin Peters, who has decided to impress his clients with something summery. The Berries and Melon culinary escapade includes melon cold soup, salad with berries in raspberry sauce and many more delicacies – but only until August 15.

B. The fancy Moon restaurant has just opened after repairs. It has a new summer patio now. In the menu there are several salads and cold starters, cold cucumber soup, veal steak and Sky Queen cheese as dessert come in addition to Moon's regular offers.

C. Legendary bartender Alexander Kan never stops inventing new and creative drinks. New soft drinks from watermelon, mango and some original fruit variations in the menu will complete your evening on the venue's summer patio. Non-alcohol options include four new types of iced tea.

D. The Restaurant Galaxy is celebrating summer with a special red menu. Each dish features a red-coloured ingredient. The chef recommends trying such seasonal specialties as tomato soup with shrimp and celery or fried fish in fruit sauce with red wine.

E. With the opening of its summer veranda. The French restaurant Villa has added a Mediterranean section to its menu. And, to help bring a taste of the sea a little closer to the land locked city, this restaurant has installed a large aquarium filled with lobsters, crabs and other ocean delicacies – all available for immediate consumption.

F. The Café Pinocchio has just opened but is very popular among families with small children. Kid-friendly food, toys, paper and pencils are on hand, and cartoons are shown on a big screen – children are provided with wireless headphones so as not to disturb the adults. On weekends clowns and magicians add to the fun.

G. A beauty salon and a restaurant have simultaneously opened in the same building. The joint project allows customers to be buffed and polished in the beauty salon Breeze before going to an adjacent door for a snack at the Restaurant Viking.

Before a trip to the United States a Frenchman heard many tales about people who had problems with getting good food and good service in the restaurants in America.

On his first day in the United States, when the Frenchman wanted to have dinner, he went from restaurant to restaurant but he couldn't get a meal – it was a dinner hour, and there were so many people inside that the waiters didn't even want to talk to him.

After some time, very tired and hungry, the Frenchman came to a small eating place. To his surprise, a waiter met him at the door, seated him at one of the several empty tables, and asked:

“What will the gentleman order?”

“A plate of beef and a few friendly words.”

A few minutes later the waiter put a hot plate of beef before the Frenchman.

“Well,” said the man happily. “The beef looks nice. And what about those few friendly words?”

The waiter took a sheet of paper and wrote, “Don't eat that beef.”
